[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO MAY 28.

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE

Final Overthrow of the Commune.

VERSAILLES, May 23—Noon —Belleville was attacked this morning Batteries of marine guns poured a fire into Montmartre, and at the same time fired down on Belleville Loss of government troops 1 200 that of insurgents was immense Since Sunday 30,000 prisoners have been taken Conflot poisoned himself after being taken Rochefort and Assy will be tried by a civil court as criminals

Belgians have arrested several, and telegraphed to the government here that they will hold them at its disposal

Six thousand insurgents surrendered in a body PARIS, May 23 —General L'Admirault yesterday captured Les Buttes, de Chaumont and Montsouris, and General Vinoy carried the cemetery Pere la Chaise

The body of Delescluse has been found in the street and identified

VERSAILLES, May 23, noon —The insurgents yesterday shot the Archbishop of Paris Abbe Duguerro, and 62 other hostages remaining in their possession The troops had previously captured La Rognotte, and saved 169 hostages detained there

Thiers, in a circular, gives the details of the capture of the heights of Belleville He states that the insurgents are now compressed within the space of a few hundred yards between the French and Prussian armies The remaining insurgents must die or surrender The insurrection is completely suppressed Not one band of insurgents is left, the greater number being prisoners

Outside Paris, Sunday night May 28 —All is quiet within the city Not a shot has been fired since 10 o'clock this morning The firemen have the flames under control

The Prussians at Romainville made one thousand prisoners including several armed women

There are rumors of awful cruelties by Versailles who are reported to have shot men, women and children found with arms in their hands

Provision trains are entering the city There is great rejoicing within and without the city over the termination of the struggle

LATER—VERSAILLES, May 28 —The insurgents surrendered, unconditionally, at 9 this morning The slaughter on Saturday night was awful All together the suppression of the Commune has cost over fifty thousand lives and the destruction of one third of Paris

English Affairs.

LONDON, May 28 —The Observer says, no confidence should be put in rumors of Cabinet changes They have no foundation

WASHINGTON CITY

General News

WASHINGTON, May 28 —Secretary Fish will leave for New York at the close of this week The Secretary will not be one of the arbitrators on the Alabama claims, where report recently placed him, if for no other reason than indelicacy of accepting an office which he assisted in creating

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer at New York to sell $2 000 000 gold on the first and third Thursdays, and $1 000, 000 on the second, fourth and fifth Thursdays of June—or $7 000,000 in all—and to purchase $1 000,000 on each Thursday in June

The following telegram was read by Secretary Fish, to-day The Archbishop and sixty nine priests were shot on Tuesday night The insurrection has been suppressed The insurgent losses are enormous, those of the government comparatively small WASHBURNE

EASTERN STATES

The Coal Mine Horror.

PITTSTON, PA May 28 —All the men in the mine, 38 in number, have been brought up IS were dead

Reported Massacre by Indians.

SIOUX CITY, IOWA, May 28 —A gentleman of undoubted veracity, who has just arrived from the Upper Missouri, reports that "Running Bull's band of Sioux, who went to Fort Buford a few days ago to fight the Reese Indians, surrounded Fort Buffalo and massacred the entire garrison The report may not be authentic, but it is known that the Indians in Western Dakotah and Eastern Montana are moving in large parties and it is feared that the rumor has some foundation

UTAH

OGDEN, May 29 —The following persons passed west to day S P Marsh and wife, Robert A Walker and wife, Portland, Oregon F O Moore, Oregon City W D Walbridge, Idaho, Miss E Persons, Victoria

CURRENT NOTES

Of Wendell Phillips the New York Tribune says: Place him on the steps of the Hotel de Ville and he would annihilate the Versailles Government with a bon mot He could invent an epigram that would keep the Paris Commune running a year There is no doubt of it

Superintendent Walker of the Census Bureau has completed a statement showing the nativity of the population of Rhode Island, from which it appears that 129 269 are natives of the State, that 32,638 were born in other American States and that the total population of foreign birth is 55,396

The opposition to infallibility among the Catholic clergy is spreading Close upon the case of Dr Dollinger comes that of M Lgh, a priest of some note in Switzerland He has refused to accept the dogma or to recommend it to his congregation The southern has been directed against him

In the course of a forvid speech in the Woman's Suffrage Convention in New York, recently, Mrs Victoria Woodhull Blood said "We mean treason, we mean secession, and on a thousand times grander scale than was that of the South We are plotting revolution, we will overthrow this bogus Republic and plant a government of righteousness in its stead" Victoria evidently has her Blood up to fever heat

The round figures of the railroad interest are easily learned and remembered The whole length of all the railways in the world is 120,000 miles The cost of the same was in round numbers ten billions of dollars Those of Great Britain are the most costly and those of the United States the least so The railway system of the world is supposed to give employment to over one million persons

The Chicago Times devotes nearly five columns to the late Rev Eleazer Williams, of Wisconsin, one of the claimants of the French throne, and says the Rev Eleazer's son John, now the lineal heir, is engaged as the sailing master of one of the lake crafts, and that he resides at Oshkosh This person, who is now about 40 years of age is said to be quite illiterate and entirely wanting in the personal and mental attractions of his father

The Treasury Department defends its retention of so large a surplus (over $100,000 000) of gold with the statement that nearly all of it is liable to be called out by overdue obligations of the government Thus coin certificates $20 010 000, interest $31 000 000, three per cent certificates $39,000 000, matured debt nearly $4 000,000 making a grand total of $84 000 010 Of course there is no serious probability of a large portion of these obligations being presented for payment but if the Treasury should part with its means to meet them there would be great temptation for a strong combination of speculators interested to the Government and seeking to make a big break in the market price of its securities, to gather up all of these obligations possible, and thrust them upon the Treasury with a sudden demand

Port Townsend people expect to have Admiral Winslow the hero of the Kearsarge and the destroyer of the Alabama with them on the 4th of July.

OREGON

Wool is selling at Eugene at thirty one cents

An increased number of real estate sales is noted in Lane county at advancing prices

According to the reports furnished by papers throughout the Willamet valley crop prospects never before promised so well as now

A son of Albert Savage, residing in Washington county, was killed by an accidental discharge of a gun a few days ago He was sixteen years old

The building to be erected at Salem for the establishment for manufacturing agricultural implements will be 60 by 160 feet in area and three stories high. It will be built of brick and made fire proof The cost will be from $75 000 to $100,000

The Merchants' and Farmers' Navigation Company of Umpqua held a meeting a few days ago, when the following persons were elected Directors for the ensuing year: J C Flood, Asher Marks, D C McClellan, S W Crane and Thomas P Sheridan The new Directors elected Asher Marks, President George Haynes Treasurer and James Walton, Secretary The company have purchased the Sea Gull, and both of its boats are now engaged in the trade from Gardiner to Scottsburg Should the contemplated river improvements be made this summer, it will be fully prepared for the trade to Roseburg next winter

THE TERRITORIES

Charles Douglass is on trial at Idaho City for the killing of E D Holbrook ex Congressman from Idaho

It is estimated that the cost of the proposed railroad from Wallula to Walla Walla 31 miles, will be $673,266 or $22 053 per mile

Hill Harmon of the Pacific House, Olympia has been awarded the contract for keeping the insane of Washington Territory at ninety two cents per day for each patient

The Olympia Transcript complains of the irregularity of steam communication between Portland and Puget Sound, and says that the trade of that place will suffer thereby

The Olympia Tribune says the Swinomish tide flats on the Sound are being rapidly improved Eight thousand bushels of wheat will be raised there this year from reclaimed land

Advices from Warren's Diggings state that there is every prospect of a lively mining season there there this summer, and a larger gold yield than any year since 1864 The mountains are full of snow, giving promise of an abundant supply of water, and the miners are fully prepared to take advantage of it

A few days ago at Port Townsend some Chinese who were suspected of several burglaries recently committed, were seized by a crowd and hanged till they became insensible The report concludes with the statement that "they were still alive at last accounts" They denied all knowledge of the acts of which they were accused They who instigated this inhuman treatment should have a taste of their own medicine Such conduct would be atrocious in a community of Apaches

The South Carolina Troubles

JUDGE ORR ON THE SITUATION

Judge Orr, formerly speaker of the national House of Representatives a member of the Confederate Senate, and now Circuit Judge of the five northwest counties of South Carolina and almost the only one of the old political leaders of the State who belongs to the Republican party, has been interviewed by a Tribune correspondent who says Judge Orr thinks that the disorders that are occurring in many parts of the State arise from various causes chief among which may be mentioned the arming of negro militia the increase of taxation, the extravagance of the Legislature the corrupt practices of some public officers and the inconsistency of others the bitter feeling cherished by the old politicians on account of the failure of Congress to remove their disabilities, and the hostility of the white population to the negroes on account of the exclusive supremacy of their former slaves in the State government The rebel soldiers are especially irritated at negro rule During the war they looked forward to their return home with the belief that they would then be honored by the people and chosen to office, as soldiers have been at the North Instead of this, they find themselves disqualified for even the most unimportant places while offices are mostly filled by negroes who once blacked their boots groomed their horses, or worked in the cotton fields The greed of the negroes for office constantly increases and was greatly aggravated last fall by the nomination of negroes of both parties and the election in the State of a majority of negroes to the Legislature and all negroes except one to Congress Many of the officers chosen, both negroes and white men were notoriously incompetent and not a few were of questionable honesty In Abbeville county the probate judge member of the Legislature, and the Intendant of the town are now in arrest for robbing the county treasury The return nominees last fall were no better than the Republican nominees and this fact showed the insincerity of the reform movement, which Judge Orr believes, was a trick of Democratic politicians, and not an honest effort to put good men in office regardless of party The judge believes that the old military leaders in the State the generals and colonels of the Confederate army, who have an influence and control over their former soldiers resembling that of the Scottish chiefs with their clan could stop all violence and outrage at once by the simple expression of their disapprobation, and that they do not do this because they hope for some political advantage from the continuance of irritation and disturbance He does not expect any good result from the approaching taxpayers convention, which he looks upon as a scheme of the Democratic politicians Thus, he thinks is shown by the fact that all the delegates appointed to the convention are bitter Democratic partisans and also that the gross misstatements made and persisted in by the Democratic press and leaders about the taxation and financial condition of the State The civil provisions of the recent Ku Klux legislation of Congress Judge Orr believes, will be of no value whatever, and only in one way can the military portion of the law be effective It will be useless to attempt to police the State and endeavor to keep the peace and enforce civil law with soldiers but if it is clearly the intention of the Democrats at the Presidential election by violence and intimidation, to keep the negroes from voting the Legislature can provide that there shall be but one polling place in each county, and a company of United States troops in that place would secure a fair election To do this, however, would require 3 000 soldiers for South Carolina alone The Judge thinks that the hopes of the South for future quiet and prosperity lies in the gradual extinction of the bitterness caused by the war in the education of the blacks in the division of the whites into two parties and in the influx of immigration from the North All this will take time, but great progress has already been made by the general acceptance of equal suffrage by all classes as an accomplished fact And when the immense social political and industrial changes that the South has passed through are considered, it is to be wondered at that the condition of affairs is as good as we find it—that so great a degree of order prevails When Judge Orr connected himself with the Republican party some attempt was made to practice toward himself and his family that social ostracism that has proved so effective in preventing numbers of men of talent and social position from taking a like course but his great ability, unquestioned integrity, and life long prominence in public affairs made the effect ridiculous His influence has been very salutary He has endeavored to correct the abuses in the Republican party, to moderate intensity of political feeling, and to inculcate respect for law and order If half a dozen men of like character in each county had followed his example a year ago, there would be no Ku Klux outrages in South Carolina to day and far less occasion to complain of the venality and ignorance of public officers

How Bismarck Dictated Peace

HOW THE FRENCH SIGNATURES WERE OBTAINED TO THE PEACE PRELIMINARIES

The following interesting account of how Bismarck obtained the French signatures to the peace preliminaries is furnished by Baron Irlis, one of the three South German Ministers who were present at the conference.

We were all assembled in the parlor, when Bismarck entered, chart in hand A morose but dignified deportment took the place of his usual pleasing and obliging manner He spread the chart upon the table, and said 'Gentlemen here you see the boundaries which we require now be resolved'

Jules Favre appeared quiet and solemn Thiers, however, moaned, lamented and wept Then commenced a speech, which lasted an hour during which Bismarck said nothing but took a seat at a farther end of the room, evidently not listening to Thiers harangue At last, looking at his watch, he jumped from his seat, and, watch in hand, came toward the table where we were sitting and said with an icy composure 'Gentlemen, it is now 2 o clock, in twelve hours the armistice expires there is no time for speechmaking, we must act at the expiration of the last hour our batteries will open upon Paris, and like an avalanche our armies will sweep down upon defenseless France

Yes, if a nation who insidiously attacks a peaceful neighbor while asleep, and whose reward for so doing would be 'Honor and Capital,' then your 'papers' would be worth negotiating

The Lord exercises Right, Honor and Truth in His great Universe, and through our instrumentality has maintained these principles and preserved Europe

I now have to leave you, for I require six hours sleep, two hours for my meal; this leaves four hours for your decision for peace or war No more speeches, I crave resolves which lead to actions"

Thiers despairingly declared that they could not possibly appear before the National Assembly with any proposition involving the cession of territory, and if this is to be the ultimatum, he and his colleagues would have to resign their mandate Whereupon Bismarck replied "I now impart to you my last words Rather than to continue these negotiations much longer with a France sans entente I will give up Belfort but not one inch more In your hands now is confided the fate of France, to decide upon war or peace If the former is chosen, it will be the fourth time that you conjure up war—first, in July, then after Sedan, afterward before Paris when the first negotiations took place, and again now But one thing I wish to impress upon your mind If you determine for war this time, you shall have a war which your country will not relish, and which will frustrate your desire to play with fire Adieu! I need not"

Those last words were spoken with a weight of a fait accompli and fair France lay crushed at our feet Benumbed at this sentence, dismayed and terrified before such power, the French emissaries yielded to the iron necessity and signed the document with trembling hands and tears in their eyes

Rulings Affecting Coin, Legal Tender, and Gold Notes

The following rulings in relation to copper coin as a legal-tender for stamps, the non liability of the Treasury Department to pay for legal tender notes totally destroyed, and the law regarding gold notes of National Banks have been made by the United States Treasurer

One and two-cent coins are not receivable in payment of more than four cents for postage and revenue stamps Interest on compound interest notes issued by the Government for three years ceased at their maturity The Treasury Department has been prepared at any time since maturity to pay them

Congress has conferred on the Treasury Department no authority to redeem legal-tender notes totally destroyed Although Congress has in some instances authorized the Department to make payment for interest-bearing securities which had been lost or totally destroyed, no such authority, either special or general, has been conferred in cases of the loss or destruction of legal tender notes.

The gold notes of a national bank are redeemable at the Treasury only in case of its failure or liquidation Like national bank notes, payable in lawful money, the gold notes of national banks are redeemable at the Treasury only in case of the failure of a bank or its going into liquidation Gold notes of San Francisco national banks are not redeemable in New York National banks must receive each other's gold notes at par Under section five of the act of July 12, 1870, the First National Bank of San Francisco, (in common with all other gold national banks that may be organized in the same city) is specially exempted from providing for the redemption in New York of its notes Under section 4 of the same act all national banks issuing gold notes are required to receive at par, in the payment of debts the gold notes of any other national bank

The Woman who Wouldn't

A BEAUTIFUL JEWESS WHO WILL NOT MARRY A CHRISTIAN—AN OBSTINATE MAN WHO WILL NOT BE MARRIED

In the matter of the application of Charles Peters, who was brought before Judge McCunn Superior Court, Special Term to be discharged on habeas corpus, the petitioner was allowed to go on filing an unpaid bond for $100 Peters was imprisoned on the complaint of Miss Amelia Oppenheim, a fair-haired Jewess of nineteen, who charged him with seduction under promise of marriage She also stated that he represented himself to be a Jew by name Max Weil when in reality he was a Catholic She demanded a consummation of the marriage promise Peters was willing to comply, but the young lady ascertained, as she says that her betrothed was not of the Hebrew persuasion, and said she was not at liberty to marry a Christian, and would not until he had exchanged his moral code This Peters refused to do, and suit was brought to recover $3 000 damages for seduction under promise of marriage, in which Peters was arrested and locked up Judge McCunn ordered both the parties to appear before him, yesterday at 12 o'clock, when both were willing he would perform the marriage ceremony After a long consultation with Miss Oppenheim through an interpreter she still refused Counsel for Peters said his client was ready and anxious to marry her, and wanted no delay in the matter so that the child might be legitimate He (Peters) was illegally held, because he had complied with every requirement of the law regarding suits for breach of promise of marriage and seduction, as Peters was ready at any moment to fulfill the contract or support the child It was outrageous to ask a man to change his religion particularly from that of a Catholic to that of a Jew

The opposing counsel said that after Miss Oppenheim discovered that Peters was not a Jew he promised to become one, and was to place himself in a position to marry her according to her original persuasion On this second promise he based his action She did not he said at the time make it

The "Last Dying Spark"

Such unhappiness as that which ruffles the Democratic breast because measures have been taken to stop murder and check other outrages in the Southern States calls for profound sympathy from all 'constitutional souls In this black channel do the ravings of the Oregon City Enterprise run

One of the most monstrous iniquities ever perpetrated on a people calling themselves free was called into existence at Washington during the dying hours of the late session of Congress The passage of the Ku Klux bill was the final acme of the corruption and rottenness of the Radical party and the summing up of all the villainies that ever were conceived in the distempered brains of Moza Morton and Ben Butler Congress was held together for over one month for no other purpose than to smother out the last dying spark of the liberty handed down to us by the great father of our country.

Now we cannot say that this bathos is better bathos, or that this magniloquence is more magniloquent magniloquence, than we have heard many a time from similar sources, long ere now But we must remark that if the 'last dying spark of liberty is to be smothered out' by an act to check wholesale murder, robbery, and other outrages of daily perpetration by the Ku Klux, then we had better try to do without liberty for a while, until crimes of this sort, committed in the name of liberty and defended in the name of liberty by such papers as the one at Oregon City are checked and punished

We are not to forget that every measure employed to restrain violence or compel obe[dience] to authority at the South for the last [two years] has been pronounced unconstitu[tional] by such as the Enterprise, and declared [to be] subversive of liberty The editor of [the] paper, during the rebellion, was as cer[tain] that the attempt to force the rebels to [submis]sion in 1862 would "smother out the [last] dying spark of liberty," as he is now [that the] Ku Klux bill will have that result

Eastern newspaper which has of late [years] made the Administration with unsparing [severity] in a recent article has some remarks which [may] be commended to such as view the [matter] as the Enterprise does The paper [refers] to in the same article, has some [severe] criticisms upon the Republican party, [but] it also says

[Nothing] in the United States has gone to the [dogs] as likely to do so, nor that any min[isterial] rights are abridged by the Government [and] that no serious disorders exist in some of the [States] there is cause and it is simply stupid to say [that] power does not and ought not to exist in the Government [to put] them down If they cannot [be put down] free government is only a contrivance [which] should [be] a ridiculous affectation a sham [and] it is laughable to institute a com[parison] and call heaven and earth to witness it, [between] the expenditures of the Government in 186[0] and in 1[8]70 Why not descant on the outrageous [disparity] between the pantaloons of the boy of five years and those of the youth of twenty I These sacrifices are unworthy of the leaders of a party that is or may be great

We trust this with the "shrieky" extract from the Oregon City paper, above quoted [will] show the differences between the good [sense] of an observing writer and the common [run] of Democratic newspapers

The 'last dying spark of liberty,' according to Democratic oracles, has been on the point of flickering out for very many years, somehow it miraculously keeps alive.

The British Colonial Press on the Treaty

The Canadian press gives utterance to a variety of opinions upon the treaty of Washington the prevailing tone is one of dissatisfaction Most of the papers think that the Dominion has conceded to the United States [more] than is marked contrast with the carpers of the American press who object, or pretend to object, the treaty, on the alleged ground that it is a surrender on the part of our Government

[Some] of the Provincial press protest in angry terms against the treaty, and declare that the interests of the provinces are being sacrificed by England with a view of adjusting the Alabama claims Referring to the question of the fisheries, the Halifax Chronicle says "We are colonists and British subjects, and [we] will not be a pack of cowardly slaves to allow our property to be traded away without reason The English blockade runners [and] ship builders will not be permitted to [escape] the cost of their blunders on this [point] without a struggle The attempt [to] violation of the good faith which [exists] between these colonies It would [be] dishonorable and unprincipled violation of provincial rights by the strong hand" This [appears] to be the general feeling in all the [Lower] Provinces At Montreal, Quebec and [Ottawa] the press appears to attach less importance to the fisheries question

Some of the papers complain that the Fenian raids were not considered, and that claims or damages therefor were not pressed upon the United States Our neighbors at Toronto are not satisfied with the manner in which the San Juan question is to be settled Take it altogether, the press of the British Provinces is not satisfied with the treaty [but] deems its terms too favorable to the United States

The recent address by the Democratic members of Congress 'entreats the Southern Democracy' to be quiet and abstain from acts of violence What for? If no acts of violence have been committed or intended, [what] the necessity for these anxious adjurations The perpetration of outrages the [Democratic] members of Congress admit by [their] entreating their political friends at the South to refrain from them in the future And why do they "entreat them to be quiet? Only because they are afraid Southern Ku Kluxism will hurt the Democratic party at the North

Gov Haight, of California, bases his [claim] to a re-nomination by his party on his [opposition] to railroad and other subsidies A California journal gives a full review of his official acts regarding the subsidy question The article enumerates 18 acts which became laws through the signature of the Governor, which were designed to grant tide lands authorize the issue of county bonds and in other respects assist in subsidizing and aiding railroads While he signed these eighteen acts he vetoed but two This is his "anti subsidy' record!

There is a very warm contest among Democratic candidates in California over the gubernatorial nomination In every county a sharp struggle is taking place in the primaries Colusa county has been carried for Haight and Nevada county for Findley The Democratic State Convention will be held on the 20th June

We publish to-day a decision in bankruptcy by Judge Deady, in which the lien law of Oregon is considered in relation to the bankrupt act The opinion will doubtless possess considerable interest for mechanics and others in Oregon

A Contrast

In an article entitled "A Contrast' the New York Evening Post, a paper which has of late been criticising the Republican party and President Grant with great severity draws a vivid contrast between Government as conducted where Democrats have entire control of it, and Government as conducted by Republicans where they control it In New York the Democrats have undisputed possession of power both in the city and State They have the Executive and Legislative departments and can carry out their theories of Government without interference At Washington the Republicans have equal control of all the departments of Government Both parties have thus had a clear field in which to display their principles and purposes, and a comparison between the two is the natural process by which a plain man is likely to estimate their fitness to guide the future of the nation Where asks the Post—notwithstanding the severity with which that paper has treated some of the measures of the Republican party—where is the most satisfactory Government, at Albany or at Washington? We quote full what follows

Whatever complaints are made of the recent acts of the national Executive or of Congress no fair man has questioned the honesty and patriotism of the Federal Government, on the whole, in the hands of the Republicans. The public revenues are collected with energy, impartiality, and with extraordinary economy, taxes are reduced year by year and yet the surplus in the Treasury steadily increases and the national debt is rapidly paid off, the credit of the Government, whether measured by the value of its currency or by the price of its bonds constantly improves, and its expenses diminish No person in the United States believes or suspects that any measure of actual corruption, known to be such, could find favor for a moment with the President or with either house of Congress.

Again, all accounts of the General Government are public The expenses of every department and of every man are reported where any citizen may read them, and the summary of all that is done with the public money is made up in detail every month and given to the country All legislation is framed and discussed in public, and the reasons for its adoption are, or may be, known to every one The machinery of administration is transparent no secret directory or conspiracy controls it, and no error is made that is not self proclaimed throughout the land It is a fierce light that beats forever on such a government, and every spot is magnified and darkened by its glare, but we may be sure that the people appreciate at least the fact that they know and understand what their public servants are doing and they prefer even an open and undisguised mistake to an indirect and concealed wisdom

Albany presents a very different scene The mismanagement of the finances of the State and of this city, under its direction has become a by word The revenues from the canals have been wasted and have now disappeared The prisons and other public institutions are grossly abused for political ends The city is burdened for taxes beyond all precedent, and a horde of plunderers enrich themselves by cramping its prosperity Its debt is increasing at an enormous but unknown rate, its public improvements are generally believed to be mainly "jobs," for private emolument, its credit is declining. The general character of the State and city government is such that the man who should describe their general policy to pure and patriotic motives would be laughed at everywhere as too credulous to do business

The finances of the city are not explained to the public No report of them is made, although the law requires it and the law making power itself hastens to pardon and prolong this disobedience. In the same way the whole business of legislation is transacted practically, in secret Bills become laws without any knowledge on the part of legislators themselves of what they are enacting A secret council of managers dictate to all branches of the Government what they shall do, and control the policy of the State in all its departments, solely with the view to obtain as much money as they can for themselves and their followers, and to perpetuate their power

It is no secret that a large part of the Republican party finds much to disapprove in the recent acts both of President Grant and of the majority in Congress The San Domingo scheme, with the unconstitutional measures by which it has been promoted, the Ku Klux legislation, and the neglect of revenue reform and political errors and national misfortunes Yet they are all but trifles when compared with the disasters which would be brought upon the country if the reckless faction that has disgraced and plundered this State and this city at Albany should obtain control of it The Democratic leaders may be sure that the people may find fault with others and yet in no wise prefer them A serious study of Washington may for a time 'puzzle the will," but a glance at Albany is enough to

'Make us rather bear the ills we have
Than fly to others that we know not of

According to the British Board of Trade returns, says the New York Tribune, the value of imports into Great Britain from the United States during the year 1870, was 249,021 645, the largest amount ever recorded This official statement furnishes the best reply to the assertion that the present tariff by raising the price of home products, virtually excludes them from foreign markets It reveals the starting fact that, under the tariff, the country most interested in free trade is increasing its demand for our merchandise Meanwhile, skilled labor in America secure against the aggressions of cheap foreign labor, is perfecting new branches of art and opening new channels of trade

The Herald declines to say whether it accepts the amendments to the Constitution, or not. It is clear, however, that it is afraid to pronounce them null and void It is like the Democratic members of Congress who, in their address, made sneering and cowardly allusions to the amendments,—not strong enough for one portion of the party, and too strong for the other portion

The history of the Paris insurrection is summed up in a few words, in dispatches of to-day That insurrection has cost 50,000 lives, and one-third of the city of Paris Now for the next split and the commencement of another chapter of horrors

OREGON SCHOOL LANDS

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE

The following correspondence will explain itself

WASHINGTON, April 20, 1871

HON D M RISDON, Eugene City—Dear Sir Your important letter, of the 15th March, relating to lands, selected by the Territory of Oregon and the State of Oregon, for school purposes, in place of the 16 h and 36th sections which may have been disposed of before such selections were made was duly received and presented personally to the Commissioner of the Land Office You will no doubt by his letter of April 11th in response, that he made no decision upon the point which you so much desired I therefore called his attention to the importance of a decision upon the point, that is, whether lands selected outside the township in place of the 16th and 36th sections were valid selections or not You will notice by his letter of April 14, that there is no doubt as to such selections made while we were under a Territorial Government as there was no restriction or limitation And even after our admission as a State I think all that is required at the General Land Office here will be the approval by the local land offices of the State of such selections,—they however not exceeding the amount that the State is entitled to in place of such 16th and 36th sections, and providing they are within the Land District where such township is situated

Very respectfully, H W CORBETT

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE
WASHINGTON, D C April 11th 1871

HON H W CORBETT, United States Senator—Sir In reply to the enclosed letter, which you referred to this office, addressed to you by D M Risden, Esq, dated at Eugene City, Oregon, the 15th ult relative to selections for school purposes under the Territorial authority of Oregon by virtue of the act of Congress of January 7th, 1853, I have the honor to state that the selections referred to have never been regularly reported here by the District land Officers, and we have made no rulings in reference thereto This office has entered into correspondence with the District Land Officer, with the view to a speedy adjustment of the matter but until the selections are duly reported by them we can furnish no information on the subject

Very respectfully,
WILLIS DRUMMOND, Commissioner

GENERAL LAND OFFICE
WASHINGTON, D C, April 14 1871

HON H W CORBETT, United States Senator—Sir Referring to your personal call of this morning, I have the honor to state in addition to our letter of the 11th inst, herewith enclosed, that Congress passed an act in relation to school lands in Oregon, approved 7th January 1853, (Statutes at Large, Vol 10 page 150,) providing in its first section 'That the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Oregon be and hereby are authorized in all cases where the 16th and 36th sections or any part thereof shall be taken and occupied under the law making donations of land to actual settlers, or otherwise, to cause the County Commissioners of the several counties in said Territory or such other officer or officers as they shall direct, to select, in lieu thereof, an equal quantity of any unoccupied land in sections or fractional section as the case may be, and in the 2d section That when selections are made in pursuance of the provisions of the first section of this act, said lands so selected, and their proceeds, shall be forever inviolably set apart for the benefit of common schools' It will be seen that the law quoted contained no restriction in regard to the location of the indemnity lands to be selected under its provisions

Again, Congress provided in the acts of February 14th, and February 26th, 1859 (Statutes, Vol 11, pages 383 and 385,) for selections to be made in similar cases, according to the provisions of the act of 20th May, 1826, (Statutes, Vol 4, page 179) I quote from the instructions of this office to the Registers and Receivers of the District Land Offices in Oregon, dated the 15th March, 1866, in regard to selections under these acts as follows, viz "The quantity of school lands selected for any township is to be located within the limits of such township provided a sufficient quantity of good agricultural land exists therein If you are satisfied that a sufficient quantity of good land cannot be found therein the selection is to be made in the nearest adjacent township whereon good land exists' From this, it will be seen that the selection cannot be made outside of the township, if there is good land to be selected within it, but if not it may be made in the nearest township in which such land can be found, yet of course not outside of the Land District in which the deficiency exists

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
WILLIS DRUMMOND,
Commissioner

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 30, 1871.

CITY.

...ORATION DAY.—To-day, May 30th, will be ...served throughout the United States, wherever ...ganization of the Grand Army of the Re... ...ublic, or other army societies exist, with ceremo... ...s commemoration of the dead who fell in ... the Union. In many places these cer... ...will be participated in by many thousa... ...of people, and will be of the most imposing ...character. The day is not one of jubilee, but an ...occasion upon which, while we remember with ...gratitude those who offered their lives a sacrifice ...upon the altar of their country, we may well re... ...and pledge anew our devotion to the country ...that our dead comrades helped to save. ...Let us with their fellow soldiers of the United ...States, the Post located at this city will observe ...the day by meeting in open assembly at their ...hall, addresses will be delivered by Prof. ...F. J. Rogers, and others, and where such suita... ...memorative ceremonies will be performed as ...shall not be inappropriate to the place and occa... ...sion. As we have before stated, a cordial invi... ...tation is extended to all soldiers of the United ...States army, navy or marine corps, to meet with ...the Post—place of meeting, corner of Madison ...and First streets, entrance on south side of Mad... ...ison street.

...PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.—Next Friday even... ...of this society will give its tenth concert, at Oro... ...Dell Theater. This place has been selected be... ...cause of its much greater capacity and more com... ...modious accommodations. Philharmonic Hall is ...now too small for the society's concerts—not only ...a request of room for the vast audiences which ...constantly attend, but also in respect of stage ...room. The concert on this occasion is being pre... ...pared under the musical direction of Mr. J. B. ...Tyler, who so long and successfully wielded the ...musical baton a few years ago. The programme ...will be varied by a variety of instrumental and vocal ...performance. The society is one in which the ...people of the city may well take a just pride, and ...in the perpetuation of which they ought to take ...a zealous interest. A full house Friday evening, ...will not only be of great material aid to the ...society but a great moral encouragement to them ...in their efforts to cultivate musical tastes and ...maintain the best musical organization in the ...State.

...THE CASE OF LOSS, THE CONFIDENCE MAN.—The ...case of Loss, the young man who was arrest... ...by the sheriff of this county and brought back here, on ...the charge of obtaining money under false pre... ...tenses, was taken up yesterday morning before ...Justice Marshall. Loss waived an examination, ...and was held in the sum of $500, to answer be... ...fore the Grand Jury at the next term of the Cir... ...cuit Court. In default of bail, he was committed ...to jail. We understand that he paid ...small sums of money which he had ...borrowed, and he represents that he has a ...friend who will help him to make all the borrowed ...money good. He talks rather penitently, confess... ...ing only that he has acted badly. He admits ...that he knew the check which he passed by en... ...dorsement to the First National Bank, was spuri... ...ous, but, his worldly prospects in this ...direction being of the most flattering character. ...He informed that he is the son of a minister ...residing, and that he had formerly borne a re... ...spectable character.

...LAST OF THE MEXICAN WAR.—The follow... ...communicated:

"The Society of Soldiers of the Mexican War ...is making good progress towards a permanent ...organization, to last, we trust, until Time's scythe ...shall reduce their ranks to the sole survivor, who ...will be obliged to surrender the flag to the inex... ...orable conqueror. There are now between thirty ...and forty members. There are cheerful letters ...from several counties, in each of which Vice Presi... ...dents will be appointed. Among others, General ...Lane sends a hearty approval, and sends regrets ...that, owing to infirm health, he is deprived of the ...pleasure of meeting his comrades, many of ...whom are here. He has their cordial wishes that ...his campaign of life—his Indian summer—may ...be closed with all the consolations ...they may claim."

...We understand that the regular meetings will ...be the second Monday of every month.

...WEATHER INDICATION.—Hearing it stated ...yesterday that salmon were running up the river ...freely, a gentleman remarked that it was a ...certain sign to see salmon jumping out of ...the water. It may be so. It is generally a sign ...of fair weather to see kites flying, but it don't ...always with any certainty what will be to... ...morrow. So, for all we know, salmon may keep ...out of the wet while it is raining hard, and leap ...gaily into the air during a fitful half hour of ...sunshine between two showers, ...who will, believe in playful salmon or ...high kites; but as for us, give us a clear sky ...and north wind. If that don't get the best of ...it then prophesying might as well cease.

...COLUMBIA CITY.—We learn that, of late, con... ...siderable interest in real estate at Columbia City, ...has been awakened, and that quite a number of ...lots, blocks and tracts have changed hands. A ...sawmill is in course of erection just below the old ...mast yard landing, to be completed during this ...month. Our informant says that he knows of a ...saw mill, at least, to be erected this sum... ...mer. The prospects are that within the year, the ...place will assume quite the appearance of a vil... ...lage.

...MAP COUNTY ORGANIZATION.—At the late ...annual meeting of the Oregon Central Railroad ...Co., held in this city, the following gentle... ...men were elected Directors: Ben Holladay, W. ...S. Ladd, Geo. W. Weidler, J. H. Mitchell, T. ...B. Wilcox, M. Crawford, H. W. Scott. At a ...meeting of the Directors, the following officers ...were elected: President, Ben Holladay; Vice ...President, W. L. Halsey; Secretary, R. H. ...Crawford.

...CROWDED.—The rising of the water upon the ...wharf floor at the foot of Washington street proves ...a serious inconvenience to the three steamers ...that land there, as they all have to use one drop ...of the upper floor. The Annie Stewart, the ...Ajax and the Carrie were all lying side by ...side opposite this drop yesterday afternoon, and ...people from the outside boat had to be passed ...over the decks of the other two to reach the ...shore.

...STORMS.—Considering the improved state of ...the weather, yesterday, which is presumed to ...have been arranged either by that mythical per... ...sonage the "clerk of the weather," or by McGor... ...ty, the almanac man, or by the two together, ...we are disposed to put the one or the other or ...both metaphorically—on the back and say ..."good boy." And so say all.

...SALE OF WATCHES, JEWELRY, ETC.—A ...fine lot of watches and jewelry will be ...sold at 10 o'clock this morning, by Mr. A. B. ...Reed, auctioneer. The sale will take place ...at Front street, next door to the St. Charles ...Hotel. The goods were imported direct from ...Europe and New York.

...NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD SURVEY.—Mr. ...Hall, chief of the party of surveyors, who left ...Portland a few days since, went through to Olympia and ...back—that town on the 25th. He is to com... ...mence at McDonald's, about twelve miles north ...of the Cowlits, and survey a line through to ...Puget Sound.

...MOVING DAY.—There was a general outpouring ...of furniture and household stuff yesterday from ...the International Hotel of this city. Upon inquiry ...we find that the late landlord, Mr. Sinnott, was ...moving out, having been dispossessed by the ...sheriff through a suit at law.

...THRESHERS FOR THE VALLEY.—Four cars of ...the afternoon up-train yesterday were loaded with ...grain threshers for points in the upper part of the ...valley. Farm machinery is moving off now quite ...briskly.

...HOTEL CHANGED HANDS.—Yesterday Marshal ...A. J. Young turned over the Oriental Hotel, East ...Portland, to the assignee in bankruptcy of J. H. ...Lamb.

...WORK RESUMED.—Active work on the numer... ...ous buildings in progress in the city, was resumed ...yesterday, after an intermission of several rainy ...days.

...STEAMER DUE.—The steamship Oriflamme will ...be here from San Francisco this evening.

...NEW ARRIVED.—B. L. Stone has just received a large ...supply of Gold and Silver Watches of all the best patterns ...and makes, Gold and Silver Chains for Ladies and Gents ...wear, Opera Glasses ...Spectacles, a large assortment of the finest Jewelry and Pre... ...sents, Gold Headed Canes, a large lot of Spectacles, ...Solid Ware, and all kinds of Clocks. Mr. Stone ...is determined to make quick sales and small profits.

THE COURTS.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—MONDAY, May 29, 1871.—In re J. M. Coulter, in bankruptcy; motion to expunge proof of debt of Umfovage & Wright, as a lien, denied.

In re R. Doty et al., in bankruptcy; order that real estate be sold free from incumbrances, proceeds subject to any lien that creditors may establish.

The court adjourned to Saturday next.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, J.—MONDAY, May 29.—Ordered that J. B. Felton and W. H. Patterson, members of the bar of the U. S. Circuit Court of California, be admitted to appear as counsel for complainants in the case of John Nightingale et al. vs. O. & C. R. R. Co. et al.

Emory Allen, of Corvallis, Benton county, was appointed U. S. Commissioner.

The court adjourned till Monday next.

AMUSEMENTS.

TYROLEAN ALPINE SINGERS.—The concert at the theater last night by the Tyrolean Alpine Singers, was attended by only a fair audience, almost exclusively German. The few persons present who could not understand German, had to rely solely for amusement upon the music which was really very good. The demonstrations of applause from the German element of the audience was very frequent and enthusiastic, showing how well they appreciated the performances. The zither solos by the Franz Brothers were greatly applauded. We are informed the troupe will appear again Wednesday evening and, judging from the reception they had last evening, the second night will be far better than their first.

SKATING.—To-night there will be a band at the skating rink, and, as usual, a gay and festive throng may be expected in attendance.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

OPPOSITION STEAMER TO ASTORIA.—The Annie Stewart will leave this morning, and thereafter every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 7 o'clock, returning on the alternate days. She will touch at all intermediate points.

LESSONS ON THE PIANO.—Mrs. M. C. White, who comes well recommended from California and the East, has commenced teaching in this city Robbins' American Method for the Piano. Those desiring lessons can find her at J. M. Gilman's, corner of Third and Salmon streets.

Two New Books.

Mr. Robert Bull is agent for and will introduce here a splendid book with the following title:

The Library of Poetry and Song; being Choice Selections from the Best Poets, English, Scotch, Irish and American; including Translations from the German Spanish, etc. With an Introduction by WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT. In one Large Superb Volume of over 300 Pages.

Advance sheets of this work indicate a book of unsurpassed beauty, elegance and value. The Albany (N. Y.) Evening Journal says of it: "It is undoubtedly what its profuse claims it to be, the choicest and most complete general collection of poetry yet published. It will be deemed sufficient proof of the judicious character of the selections and of their excellence, that every poem has taken its place in the book only after passing the cultivated criticism of Mr. Bryant. The work could have no higher endorsement. Mr. Bryant's introduction to the volume is a most beautiful and comprehensive critical essay on poets and poetry from the days of the 'father of English poetry' to the present time. No other selection that we know of is so complete and varied as this."

This volume is sold by subscription, and should find a place in every home.

II.

The same canvasser is also agent for another book with the following title:

Personal Beauty. How to cultivate and Preserve it in accordance with the Laws of Health. By D. G. Brinton, M.D., and G. H. Napheys, M.D. One Vol. 346 pages.

REMOVAL.—S. L. Stone, dealer in Variety Goods, Cigars and Tobacco, has removed from his old stand, corner First and Washington streets, to 108 First street, next door to Post Office. He has added considerably to his old stock and is fully prepared to wait upon his old customers, as well as the public in general. m26d1w

Look at the price of Clothing at the store of Kohn & Fishel. Examine the superior quality of their Goods and you will be convinced they are worthy of your patronage. They will sell you a splendid Dress Suit, black or blue, for $25. An A 1 Cass. Business suit, for $17 50. First class Blue or Black Beaver Suit for $25, and some cheaper. Summer Goods, such as Glenvil, Tweed, White Marseilles, Pique and Linen Suits at extreme low prices. Their stock of Furnishing Goods, White Shirts, Socks, &c., is the best in the city and at extreme low prices. Best Star White Shirt at $2 00.

DISSIPATION AND LATE HOURS.—After the fatal night comes the miserable next morning, with its headache, its qualms, its gloomy reflections. Business must be attended to; but neither mind or body is fit for business. What is to be done? How are the energies of the system to be worked up, and its reserves of vitality brought into use? How is the clouded brain to be cleared? How languid and relaxed frame braced up for action? Under such circumstances a single wine glassful of PLANTATION BITTERS will bring about an immediate and beneficial change, and a healthful glow will be diffused through the whole organization by the tonic operation of this wholesome cordial

SEA MOSS FARINE from pure Irish Moss, for Blanc Mange, Puddings, Custards, Creams, &c., &c. The cheapest healthiest and most delicious food in the world.

You Haven't Tried Them.

Victim of debility, who is responsible for your feebleness? Not yourself, you will say, for you've done all you could to cure it. That's a mistake on your part.

You haven't tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Gloomy dyspeptic, with an uneasy stomach and a world weary face, of course you don't think yourself responsible for your own torments. But you are. It's easy to see from your condition that you haven't tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Dilatory sufferer, it is not your fault, you think, that your symptoms grow worseday by day. Blue pill doesn't do you any good. Very likely. But you can be brought round for all that.

Why haven't you tried Hostetter's Bitters?

Friend on whom fever and ague alternately blows hot and cold, and whose brain seems to be bursting with the effects of some powerful drug, do you assume the responsibility? O, no! You've taken pills of quinine, and all the regulation medicines. What could you do more? One thing more—the very thing that would have exempted you from all the pangs that now rack you.

You have never tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Nervous invalid, what have you to say? You plead that you have taken all the nervines of the pharmacopia. If they have done you no good, it is not your fault. You are not responsible. Wrong, all wrong. You have, in reality, nobody to blame but yourself.

Why haven't you tried Hostetter's Bitters?

For all the above-named complaints, the Bitters are absolute specifics.

DECISION IN BANKRUPTCY.

BY JUDGE DEADY.

Under the 1st act of Oregon the lien of a mechanic or material man arises from the doing of the work or the furnishing the material and attaches to the building from that time upon the condition subsequent that the lien creditor file a notice of his intention to hold such lien within three months from the completion of the building

The notice required to be filed does not create the lien but is necessary to preserve or continue it beyond three months after the completion of the building, and, therefore, the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy between the doing of the work or furnishing of material and the filing of such notice does not impair or affect the lien or the right of the lien creditor to continue it by filing the notice

The lien given by the local act to mechanics or material men is not opposed to the terms or policy of the bankrupt act, as it in no way prefers one creditor at the expense of another or diminishes the general assets of the debtor otherwise applicable to the payment of his general creditors

United States District Court for the District of Oregon

In re J M Coulter—In Bankruptcy Motion by Trustee to expunge proof of debt

On February 23, 1870, petition was filed in this court against Coulter, and on March 3 he was adjudged a bankrupt. The usual warrant to dispossess on of the estate of the bankrupt was issued at the same time, and on March 4 the same was published by the Marshal

On the 8 day of filing the petition the bankrupt [illegible] Lealvago & Wright in the sum of $ [illegible] for material furnished by them to the said [illegible] used in the construction of a brick [illegible] on lot 5 in block 50 in the town of Salem, [illegible] Linn, and at the date of the adjudication [illegible] owned by said bankrupt

On March 8, and within three months after the furnishing of said materials, said creditors filed in the proper office a notice of their intention to hold a lien on said building and lot as security for said indebtedness

On March 21 U & W made proof of their debt before Willis Commissioner, as one secured by a mortgage on said lot and building aforesaid, and [illegible] such proof the facts aforesaid

On the 21 day of March 1871, the trustee of the estate filed objections to the proof of debt and moved that the same be expunged The motion was referred to Register Hill, who found the facts as above stated and the conclusion of law that [illegible] was entitled to a lien

The question arising upon the objections and argued by counsel, is whether the change of property by the act and building consequent upon the [illegible] in bankruptcy prevented the [illegible] from taking effect although filed within the [illegible] from thereafter filing their notice

The decision of this motion is small, although by no means claims of a like nature are to abide the decision of this one, but the principle involved is of great practical importance to the community The decision of the question must [illegible] upon the proper construction to be given to the lien law

Before passing to that subject, it is well to note briefly at the outset that the security given to mechanics and material men is not obnoxious to the objections to which the property of the bankrupt act, because it works no injustice to any other creditor In Ex parte Hibbard (20 Pick. 543), the Court in considering a somewhat similar case said "It may be remarked here, that in one respect there is an important difference between mechanics and materials and a lien established by attachment In the latter case, an attaching creditor has no claim for preference over the rest of his debtor by his attachment, whereas where a mechanic obtains a lien under the statute, and [illegible] increases the value of the land or existing buildings thereon, he has a strong equitable claim for reimbursement to the extent of the value of his labor and materials furnished for building, and in this respect he has a marked preference over the other creditors of the said who had trusted to the personal credit of him"

The object was to secure the claims of certain persons on the value of their labor and material [illegible] property of the debtor. The [illegible] is a convenient substitute for [illegible] gage or other express security by day by day or the value of such work and material and is to be considered and enforced as such

Upon the [illegible] of this security, so given, the [illegible] party [illegible] labor and material and the [illegible] on behalf of them This transaction has been held, in not in violation of the [illegible] as bankrupt act, even although the [illegible] of the property should be insolvent [illegible] such security or lien is only [illegible] additional value which the creditor has by the means given to the property of debtor and the [illegible] does not diminish the assets of the latter applicable to the payment of his [illegible]

In Barbey Trustees vs Boatman's Saving Institution [illegible] Nisi, No 32) Mr Justice [illegible] Field concurring, held in the [illegible] of the syllabus, that —"Advances made in good faith to an indebted person, to enable him [illegible] business, upon security [illegible] do not violate either the terms or policy of the bankrupt act, since the debtor gets a present equivalent for the new debt he creates and he secures what he gives"

Bearing in mind then, that so far as the bankrupt act is concerned there is nothing to prevent those [illegible] acquiring and enforcing this [illegible] debt I proceed to consider the main question —Have U and W acquired a lien upon the property in question by reason of the facts stated?

The [illegible] law of Oregon (Or Code p 753) provides (Sec 1) that any person, who by virtue of a contract with the owner of a building, shall furnish any materials for the construction of such building shall upon filing the notice prescribed in the next section have a lien upon such building and the lot or ground upon which the same is situated for such [illegible] material [illegible] furnished (Sec 2) If the person furnishing the material desires to avail himself of the provisions of the law he must "at any time within three months from the completion of such building" file in the office of the County Clerk a notice of his intention to hold a lien upon such building [illegible] the amount due," (Sec 3) "Such notice shall exist at the end of one year after the [illegible] of the building," unless proceedings are commenced to enforce it, (Sec 7)

Lien created in pursuance" of this law "shall have precedence over all other liens after the commencement of the building," and if the property is insufficient to pay all such liens," they are to be satisfied pro rata, (Sec 8) The lien, as to the building to extend to the lot on which it is erected, it at "at the time of erecting such building the same "was the property of the person who caused it to be erected

The remaining sections of the statute relate to the enforcement of the lien, and do not bear upon the question under consideration

From the terms of this statute—indeed from the very fact of its enactment—it is manifest that the intention of the Legislature to give mechanics and material men security for the amounts [illegible] on account the trouble or inconvenience or expense [illegible] upon their part, of taking any such security by special contract or pledge.

[illegible] or the trustee maintains that as U and W failed to file notice of intention to hold a lien before the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy no lien was created on the property, [illegible] under the operation of the bankrupt act, it seems to me that such security or lien is only a [illegible] benefit of the general creditors

The premises are admitted the conclusion follows An adjudication in bankruptcy and the assignment thereunder relate to the filing of the petition and vest the property of the bankrupt, as of the date of such filing, in the assignee or trustee.—(Bank Act § 14)

This argument for the trustee rests mainly upon the effect claimed for the provision quoted from section 1 of the act—"shall, upon filing the notice, etc, have a lien upon such building etc" Upon the language of this provision it is maintained that the filing of the notice is a condition precedent to acquiring a lien under any circumstances That the lien is then and thereby created, and if prior thereto, the interest of the owner or debtor in the property has in any way become vested in another, the right and opportunity to create such lien is lost No other provision of the law is relied upon as sustaining this position, although it is claimed that none can be found in direct conflict with it

It seems to me that this construction rests more upon the language of the clause than the reason and purpose of it, considered with reference to the whole act In the majority of instances, where the owner and debtor is insolvent, it would make the statute of no avail to the creditor, who furnished his labor or materials upon the security of the property

I think that the statute, taken as a whole and construed with reference to the end to be obtained, and the mischief to be remedied by it, gives a lien in any case from the commencement of the labor or delivery of the material furnished, and that the filing of the notice as prescribed in section 2, is only a condition subsequent, which is necessary to be performed to preserve the lien for a greater period than three months from the completion of the building.

Section 3 of the act in providing that in a certain contingency the lien shall cease to exist at the expiration of one year after the completion of the building," by implication asserts that it does exist from the completion of the building But the notice need not be filed for three months after such completion True, it may be said, that 'the completion of the building" is there referred to merely as an event or point of time in the transaction, from which to date the year given by the section for the enforcement of the lien But admitting such to be the primary purpose of the reference to this event or point of time, still in asserting or declaring that the lien shall cease to exist in one year from such completion, the Legislature have by implication, although not a necessary one, said that such lien does exist during such year

Section 8, in providing that the lien shall extend to the lot on which the building is erected, if at the time of such erection, the same was the property of the debtor, by necessary implication asserts that the lien exists at such time Now the time of the erecting such building" is the time occupied or consumed in its erection from foundation to roof If the lien exists during all or any portion of this period it must also exist before the time limited for filing the notice, and cannot therefore be created by it It may be a question whether this notice can legally be filed before the completion of the building But it appears probable that such completion is here referred to merely as the event from which to compute and ascertain the point of time in the transaction within which the notice must be filed to preserve the lien, and that such notice may be filed at any time after the performance of the contract for labor or material, and within three months from the completion of the building In deed, it may be that the act will permit notice of the lien to be filed day by day as the work or delivery of material progresses, but it does not appear reasonable, that the creditor is under any obligation to file notice in any case before the completion of his contract to labor or furnish material So, if the creditors' lien extends to the lot at any time during the erection of the building as provided by this section, it follows that it may exist before the filing of the notice!

Section 7 in providing that the "liens created in pursuance" of this act not the notice, "shall have precedence over all other liens after the commencement of the building," declares in effect that for the purpose of preferring this lien to all others, it shall be deemed to exist from the commencement of the building This indicates very plainly that it was the intention of the Legislature to so fasten these liens upon the property as not to permit any other class or description of creditors under any circumstances to subject the value of the labor and material furnished upon the faith of them, to the payment of their debts unless it be with the express or implied assent of the mechanic or material men

Taken the whole act together, and considering the manifest purpose of it, as well as the necessary consequence of a different construction, I am satisfied that notwithstanding the letter of the clause in section 1 referring to the filing of the notice, that a lien is given from the commencement of the work or delivery of material, upon the condition subsequent, that the creditor files the notice prescribed in section 2, within the time limited therefor A failure to perform this condition will doubtless work a loss of the lien The omission, at least as against third persons, should be construed as an abandonment of the lien. The same effect would follow a failure to enforce the lien within the time prescribed in section 8

Here the trustee succeeded to the rights of the bankrupt in this property at the date of the filing of the petition, and also to such rights, if any, as the general creditors had in it or could assert against it notwithstanding the bankrupt, and nothing more If he had been a purchaser without notice, for a valuable consideration, under the same circumstances, the property would have passed by the sale, subject to the lien and the right of the lien creditor to do any act which he might have done but for such sale, necessary or required to perfect, preserve, continue or enforce his lien. Hotaling et al vs Cronise et al (2 Cal 64), Soule et al vs Dawes (7 Cal 576), Blauvelt vs Woodworth (31 New York 287), Foster vs Heirs of Stone (20 Pick. 542)

In the course of the argument counsel for trustee cited and relied on the case, in re Dey, 3 Bank Reg No 11, decided in S D of N Y in 1869 The case arose under a statute of New Jersey, and decides that under that statute the lien did not attach from the time of doing the work or delivering the material, but from the filing of the claim for lien, and that the proceedings in bankruptcy having been commenced before such filing, no lien could be created by a subsequent filing The statute of this State and that of N J. are not alike in some respects, but the difference is more verbal than otherwise, and the case is on its point I do not adopt its conclusions because I am not convinced by its reasoning, and do not approve of its policy. To my mind there was no difficulty in holding that under the N J statute the lien attached from the time the work was done and the material furnished Those acts and the indebtedness which arose from them were the meritorious cause of the lien,—the reason for which the statute gave it—and not the mere technical act of filing the claim. The latter is only required as a means of giving notice to the world of what already exists—a lien upon the property —and the intention of the creditor to hold or continue it

The case cited in the opinion from the N J Rep (1 C E Green, 159-161) does not, so far as I can perceive, necessarily support the conclusion It may well be that a claim "not filed according to the requirements of the statute" does not constitute an "incumbrance on the premises," and still a lien attach upon the delivery of the material For although the lien does attach from such delivery, yet if a claim is not filed within the term or to the effect prescribed, it would cease to exist and the filing of such claim would not constitute an "incumbrance on the premises"

It is not, until after long and careful consideration, that I have declined to follow the ruling upon this question of the learned judge who decided in re Dey, and who has done so much within a few years to illumine the bankrupt act and establish the practice under it

My conclusion is, that the lien of U and W attached from the delivery of the material and that the right given by the lien law of the State, to file a notice of intention to hold, not create this lien, was not in any way impaired or affected by the subsequent proceedings in bankruptcy The trustee took the property with the incumbrance. The motion to expunge will be denied with costs, as prescribed in rule 55
